Caroline G. Cruse

Caroline Cruse practices in the areas of multi-generational estate planning, wealth conservation planning, taxation matters, and business planning for closely held businesses. She learned she was passionate in this area through her experiences with her own family's jewelry business. Caroline advises clients on estate and tax transfer ramifications and asset protection management and assists them by drafting wills, trusts, and powers of attorney.

She received her B.S. in Sports Business from Louisiana State University in 2019 and her Juris Doctorate from Tulane University School of Law in 2023 where she also received a Graduate Diploma in Civil Law.

Caroline earned her LL.M. in Taxation with Honors from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law in 2024 with a Graduate Diploma in Wealth Transfer and Legacy Planning.

Caroline is a native of Thibodaux, Louisiana. She loves to travel and is an avid LSU fan who loves to watch sports.
